Uppingham School

is a co-educational independent school founded in 1584 and situated in the small town of Uppingham in Rutland. Accommodation is in single or double study bedrooms with a washbasin. Facilities include tennis courts, a swimming pool and a bar.

Lindum, Roman Lincoln

was established as a legionary fortress in the first century AD but was soon resettled as a colonia. Today we can see the impressive remains of three of the gates and parts of the defensive wall and a well-arranged museum.
